++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloud gradually clearing to warm sunshine on Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining rather cloudy and damp, with the odd spot of light rain and drizzle possible in places. Perhaps becoming drier and clearer from the north around dawn, although most places should avoid a frost. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
Perhaps rather cloudy for many during the morning, but cloud should clear southwards to leave a fine and increasingly warm day, with plenty of sunshine into the afternoon. Light winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mostly dry, with variable but often large amounts of cloud. Turning more unsettled and windier through Tuesday, with some rain moving southeast. Temperature near average, with overnight frosts remaining possible.
